International Studies Fair - Engineering, Business Schools, Arts - Toulouse - Fall 2026

07 Nov 2026

Information

The International Studies Fair for Engineering, Business Schools, Arts aims to help students find an international education and/or career path abroad. The Fair also aims to represent a substantial number of industry sectors for prospective employees to investigate different career paths. The objective of the event is to develop a dynamic continuum of the various opportunities available in the sectors for students and young professionals with all levels of experience.

Reasons to Attend

This not to be missed event addresses French students at the undergraduate or graduate level as well as students from abroad who wish to find information on an international curriculum. It is also directed towards young graduates and the currently employed who would like to give their career a more international dimension.

Market Overview

Each year, more than 47,000 French students take degrees in non-native European Union countries. France has a population of 62.9 million with a per capita GDP of US $31,096 and is the third-largest economy in Europe after Germany and the UK. French higher education has a long tradition of openness and accessibility*. The national government devotes 20 percent of its annual budget to education. Fees for both French and international students are kept very low to persuade students to stay in education as long as possible. There are about 190,000 international students, from all over the world, currently enrolled in French higher education.

Fair Outline

Among the present institutions: Prestigious schools and French universities, European establishments (German, Swiss, Spanish, English, Belgian), North American establishments (American and Canadian universities), Australian establishments, and a Language Pavillon offering linguistic travel with language courses abroad.

The international mobility/living abroad area

-A number of French and European institutions will be available for consultation and international recruitment firms.

-International mobility agencies will be present to give advice and information to visitors looking to move abroad.

Visitors are attracted to the wide range of exhibitors and services provided by the fair including a bookshop with specialised works on living and studying abroad. Conferences and lectures will be held throughout the day to offer a broad spectrum of employment options from various industry sectors and the new tendencies in recruitment. Visitors will also receive copies of “The Official Studyrama Guide to International Education”, which will be given out at the international guide desk at the front of the fair.

This fair is the pre-eminent way for skill and opportunity to join together in a functional environment. This is a great opportunity to promote your services and to enrol students and graduates.
