

Baltic International Recruitment Tour - Universities and Boarding Schools Spring

Information

The biggest Baltic State specialised public fair for International Education is taking place in three capitals – Vilnius, Riga and Tallinn during October 2018. Organised in a workshop style, the fair provides a relaxed atmosphere of the Radisson Blu Hotels' conference centres for the representatives of language schools and executive centres, boarding schools and colleges, universities and business schools.

Reasons to Attend

The Baltic International Recruitment Tour is the biggest specialised education abroad event in the Baltic States. The fair features unique educational institutions that represent the wide range of educational and professional programmes: general, intensive and special language courses, basic and secondary education, further education and professional training, diploma programmes, BA/BSc, Masters/MBA, postgraduate and others. Visitors from various target groups including schoolchildren and their parents, young people and students, adults and business people, representatives of private and state companies and organisations, mass media. Each year the fairs receive 2,000 – 5,000 visitors in each country.

Market Overview

More and more students from the Baltic States tend to look for opportunities to gain high quality international education, professional training and experience. Foreign language courses are becoming increasingly popular among people of different ages and occupations. Every year the number of students going abroad to language schools and universities is steadily growing.

The Baltic region has a long tradition of providing high-quality education. For young people it is a vibrant and international environment with the possibility to make use of the latest developments in different study fields, which makes the region an attractive place for living and studying. According to statistics from a poll by the non-profit organisation Dream Foundation, over 60 percent of Baltic students would like to study at a foreign university.

Fair Outline

The fairs are free to access by the public, allowing visitors to get acquainted with the student fair's participants; their courses and programmes and to take enrolments. On the other hand, education providers have the opportunity to meet and support their education agents, the Baltic Council and to establish new contacts.

The success of this fair is based on qualitative service and professionalism of the organizers combined with broad promotion campaign providing return of investments for the fair's participants.

During the last several years the Baltic States (Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania) have become more attractive for education providers from all over the world. This is not a casual interest, but a developing tendency proving that the potential and demand for the educational industry abroad in the Baltic region is very high.

The Baltic international recruitment tour has been in place since 2005 with a growing number of participants and a strong presence of institutions presenting their programmes and services. The potential for the development of the education industry abroad is very high in the Baltics and the demand for quality programmes will continue to grow.

- Foundation (Preparatory)

Reasons to Attend

The fair has become the most prominent international education exhibition in Russia, providing students with access to global study opportunities, and it has also created new recruitment opportunities for foreign education institutions in Russia.

It's also the core event of the project Marketing and Promotion of International Education in Russia.

Market Overview

The Russian government has revealed plans to encourage students to study abroad, by funding up to 10,000 students a year to attend some of the world's leading universities. According to a recent survey, education investment has become the favourite choice of many Russian parents. Students and parents alike are looking forward to finding out about opportunities to study abroad, making this event essential both for visitors and recruiters. International experts forecast that by 2020 Russia may enter the top-5 list of leading "demand states" in the world educational market, and the amount paid for education by the Russian students will triple.

The number of Russians receiving an education abroad has grown significantly over the last few years, with English language programs being the most popular courses according to data released by AcademConsult, a local company that organises study abroad for Russian students.

Every year more and more Russian students pack their bags and go to study abroad. The most popular destination is Europe. Latest survey indicates that every third Russian student who is going to study abroad selects United Kingdom, every sixth-seventh - France or Germany. Study in Finland, Sweden and Netherlands is more and more attractive for many young Russians. High quality of Swiss education in the field of hospitality industry is well-known here. USA and Canada are the most popular destinations for studying abroad outside of Europe.

Fair Outline

Each day will attract 1,500 - 2,000 attendees, including Russian secondary school leavers, first, second and final-year university, graduates with work experience, low-level managers and mid-level managers.

The fair attracts exhibitors from countries worldwide, including several governmental bodies and/or their education promotion arms such as the Spanish Embassy, Agency CampusFrance, the Canadian Education Centres Network, CEAIE (China), DAAD and others.
