

IEFT International Education Fairs of Turkey Roadshow - Summer

Information

The fair welcomes around 20,000 Turkish students to each of the semi-annual fairs. Throughout the past 19 years, International Education Fairs of Turkey has grown to become the largest education exhibition in Turkey, with universities from all over the World attending every year.

Reasons to Attend

The Fair focuses solely on the Turkish Market, and therefore has built a reputation with students throughout the country through strong marketing and promotion of the exhibitions, and excellent relationships with local high schools, universities, language schools and Turkish agents. The last Fall event welcomed around 200 institutions from all over the world and 20.000 visitors to the events in Ankara, Izmir, and Istanbul.

Market Overview

Turkey is a quickly-developing country, with the youngest population ratio in Europe. The country is working towards being in the top 15 economies of the World by 2020; so now, more than ever, there is a large market for a skilled, educated, globally-minded current and future workforce.

The demand for studying abroad is not only from secondary school students and graduates, but also from 2.5 million university students. The majority of Turkish university students know the role and importance of study abroad in getting a better job in a competitive business world. There are approximately 3.5 million students studying at Turkish universities which also includes Open University students. Around 2 million of them are studying on a 4 year course. There are around 350,000 university students in Istanbul at around 50 universities. Over 200,000 students at around 20 universities in Ankara. Izmir has 9 universities and 110,000 university students.

Fair Outline

Fair students are from very respected universities and high schools of Turkey. IEFT - The international education fairs of Turkey are also visited by a number of young and experienced professionals looking for education opportunities abroad. The Fair has a professional and hands-on approach to meeting the needs of our participating institutions, and also to bringing the highest quality Turkish students to its fairs. The Fair is committed to making the recruitment process both successful and enjoyable for both participants and students.

Students attending the exhibition are looking for education all over the world. While the UK and the USA continue to dominate student interest, they are looking more and more towards programs in Canada, Europe and Asia.

We give participating institutions complete support before, during and after the fairs, including:

- Material transportation between cities
- Professional stands with the option of uniquely designed backdrops
- Local high-school and university visits
- Free promotion in IEFT's Study Abroad Magazine, distributed to nearly 20,000 student visitors
- Optional web banners, flyer distribution, newspaper advertisements, and any other promotional branding needs an institution may have
- Well-organized accommodation and transportation options
- Complete visitor statistics sent to all participants upon completion of fair tour
- Amazing social and cultural activities throughout fair

- * Enjoy support of a dedicated counselor / translator during the virtual fair
- * Receive contact details of students that have interacted with you or downloaded your materials
- * Review in-depth statistics on student visitors (age, gender, location, programs of interest etc...)

Reasons to Register

In Fall 2016, the education exhibition received over 13,100 students in 5 days and secured over 120 institutions from 15 countries (Australia, Azerbaijan, Canada, China, Cyprus, France, Italy, Latvia, Russia, Spain, Switzerland, The Netherlands, Turkey, USA, & the UK). In addition to the international institutions, counseling agencies and the local & International sponsors, Austrade, British Council, CampusFrance, DAAD, Fulbright, Institut Francais, US Embassy, US Consulate, UED, Consulate of Ukraine, exhibited at the fairs.

Teenagers make up 30% of Turkey's population, two times higher than the EU average. In 2010, over 1.5 million students took the National University Placement Exam and only 327,869 students were placed in a four-year university in Turkey. Turkish students are looking to foreign institutions for admission.

Market Overview

Turkey is a quickly-developing country, with the youngest population ratio in Europe and a clear market for overseas education. Turkey has a long history of placing great value in education and the pursuit of lifelong learning. Each year sees approximately 1.65 million Turkish students compete for only 529,000 entrance positions in post secondary institution.

- 2.5 million students are currently studying in the Turkish Higher Education System
- There are 141 State Universities, and 53 Private Universities in Turkey
- 1.5 million students will be seeking undergraduate education in August
- 800,000 students will be placed in undergraduate programs in Turkey
- 100,000 undergraduate students will seek education abroad
- 2 million undergraduate and graduate are currently looking for overseas education opportunities

Fair Outline

In the past 10 years, over 500 different institutions from 35 countries have attended the International Student Fairs in Turkey to promote their schools and meet thousands of students at these events. The International Education Fair in Turkey attracts the best student participation. The fair has a reputation for attracting the highest quality students. It attracts the most capable and qualified candidates.

Did you know that each year over 1,5 million Turkish students take the National University Placement Exam, but only 30% of them are placed in a university in Turkey? According to the Ministry of Education Statistics, more than 25,000 Turkish students preferred to study abroad in 2004. Including summer school and short-term tourist visas, the total number of students going abroad is over 40,000 annually.

International Student Fairs in Turkey are known for being a pioneer in student recruitment fairs with its 20 years experience in student recruitment. The fairs will utilize numerous forms of mass communication to deliver the best promotion which includes: local and national TV, radio, newspapers, magazines, billboards, text messaging, internet spots, etc.

The International Virtual Education Fairs in Turkey offer you a chance to meet thousands of eligible students, and it is a wonderful opportunity to network with many education agencies, local and international organisations, and foundations within a cost-effective budget.

The event will also include various social activities and we hope you will enjoy it!
