Morocco - International Student Fairs - Spring

Information

We invite you attend the International Student Fairs in Morocco. We are pleased to offer this great opportunity for international schools keen on recruiting students from this country.

Reasons to Attend

Market Overview

Fair Outline

In the past 10 years, over 500 different institutions from 35 countries have attended the International Student Fairs in Turkey to promote their schools and meet thousands of students at these events. The International Education Fair in Turkey attracts the best student participation. The fair has a reputation for attracting the highest quality students. It attracts the most capable and qualified candidates.

Did you know that each year over 1,5 million Turkish students take the National University Placement Exam, but only 30% of them are placed in a university in Turkey? According to the Ministry of Education Statistics, more than 25,000 Turkish students preferred to study abroad in 2004. Including summer school and short-term tourist visas, the total number of students going abroad is over 40,000 annually.

International Student Fairs in Turkey are known for being a pioneer in student recruitment fairs with its 20 years experience in student recruitment. The fairs will utilize numerous forms of mass communication to deliver the best promotion which includes: local and national TV, radio, newspapers, magazines, billboards, text messaging, internet spots, etc.

The International Education Fairs in Turkey offer you a chance to meet thousands of eligible students, and it is a wonderful opportunity to network with many education agencies, local and international organisations, and foundations within a cost-effective budget.

The event will also include various social activities and we hope you will enjoy it!

Poland - International Recruitment Tour - Spring

Information

The biggest Baltic State specialised public fair for International Education is taking place in three capitals –

Vilnius, Riga and Tallinn during October 2018. Organised in a workshop style, the fair provides a relaxed atmosphere of the Radisson Blu Hotels' conference centres for the representatives of language schools and executive centres, boarding schools and colleges, universities and business schools.

Reasons to Attend

The Baltic International Recruitment Tour is the biggest specialised education abroad event in the Baltic States. The fair features unique educational institutions that represent the wide range of educational and professional programmes: general, intensive and special language courses, basic and secondary education, further education and professional training, diploma programmes, BA/BSc, Masters/MBA, postgraduate and others. Visitors from various target groups including schoolchildren and their parents, young people and students, adults and business people, representatives of private and state companies and organisations, mass media. Each year the fairs receive 2,000 – 5,000 visitors in each country.

Market Overview

More and more students from the Baltic States tend to look for opportunities to gain high quality international education, professional training and experience. Foreign language courses are becoming increasingly popular among people of different ages and occupations. Every year the number of students going abroad to language schools and universities is steadily growing.

The Baltic region has a long tradition of providing high-quality education. For young people it is a vibrant and international environment with the possibility to make use of the latest developments in different study fields, which makes the region an attractive place for living and studying. According to statistics from a poll by the non-profit organisation Dream Foundation, over 60 percent of Baltic students would like to study at a foreign university.

Fair Outline

The fairs are free to access by the public, allowing visitors to get acquainted with the student fair's participants; their courses and programmes and to take enrolments. On the other hand, education providers have the opportunity to meet and support their education agents, the Baltic Council and to establish new contacts.

The success of this fair is based on qualitative service and professionalism of the organizers combined with broad promotion campaign providing return of investments for the fair's participants.

During the last several years the Baltic States (Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania) have become more attractive for education providers from all over the world. This is not a casual interest, but a developing tendency proving that the potential and demand for the educational industry abroad in the Baltic region is very high.

The Baltic international recruitment tour has been in place since 2005 with a growing number of participants and a strong presence of institutions presenting their programmes and services. The potential for the development of the education industry abroad is very high in the Baltics and the demand for quality programmes will continue to grow.
