

International Masters, MBA and Career Fair - Spring 2027 - Paris

06 Mar 2027

Information

The International Masters, MBA and Career Fair - Paris aims to help students find an international education and/or career path abroad. The International Masters and MBA Fair also aims to represent a substantial number of industry sectors for prospective employees to investigate different career paths. The objective of the event is to develop a dynamic continuum of the various opportunities available in the sectors for students and young professionals with all levels of experience.

Reasons to Attend

This not to be missed event addresses French students at the graduate level as well as students from abroad who wish to find information on an international curriculum. It is also directed towards young graduates and the currently employed who would like to give their career a more international dimension.

Market Overview

Each year, more than 47,000 French students take degrees in non-native European Union countries. France has a population of 62.9 million with a per capita GDP of US $31,096 and is the third-largest economy in Europe after Germany and the UK. French higher education has a long tradition of openness and accessibility*. The national government devotes 20 percent of its annual budget to education. Fees for both French and international students are kept very low to persuade students to stay in education as long as possible. There are about 190,000 international students, from all over the world, currently enrolled in French higher education.

Fair Outline

Among the present institutions: Prestigious business schools and French universities, European establishments (German, Swiss, Spanish, British, Dutch, Belgian), North American establishments (American and Canadian universities) as well as Australian establishments.

The international mobility/living abroad area

-A number of French and European institutions will be available for consultation and international recruitment firms.

-International mobility agencies will be present to give advice and information to visitors looking to move abroad.

Visitors are attracted to the wide range of exhibitors and services provided by the fair including a bookshop with specialised works on living and studying abroad. Conferences and lectures will be held throughout the day to offer a broad spectrum of employment options from various industry sectors and the new tendencies in recruitment. Visitors will also receive copies of “The Official Studyrama Guide to International Education”, which will be given out at the international guide desk at the front of the fair.

This fair is the pre-eminent way for skill and opportunity to join together in a functional environment. This is a great opportunity to promote your services and to enroll students and graduates.

Masters and MBA Fair in Toulon - Winter 2027

20 Feb 2027

Information

The Masters and MBA Fair is a leading educational event for prospective postgraduates, focusing on a large number of study areas, including art, sports, management, engineering, law, finance, tourism, health, digital studies.

Reasons to Attend

The fair is a targeted event focused on providing high-quality services for students who aspire to do an MBA or Masters programme while, in turn, giving institutions the opportunity to meet and recruit high-achieving students. 2500 participants joined the event in the previous event in Lille.

The fair benefits from a strong regional reputation and extensive communication campaigns including digital marketing, radio spots, local press and outreach in more than 300 schools.

Market Overview

Each year, more than 63,000 French students undertake tertiary studies abroad, with 47,000 French students taking degrees in non-native European Union countries. France has a population of 62.9 million with a per capita GDP of US $31,096 and is the third-largest economy in Europe after Germany and the UK. French higher education has a long tradition of openness and accessibility*. The national government devotes 20 percent of its annual budget to education. Fees for both French and international students are kept very low to persuade students to stay in education as long as possible. There are about 190,000 international students, from all over the world, currently enrolled in French higher education.

Fair Outline

A series of workshops and lectures are scheduled to happen at the fair. Workshop subjects include 'Successful Admission to the Master 2' and 'MBA, Masters and double degrees'.

Personal coaching workshops will be held to accompany and guide students by representatives of BIOP (Bureau d'Information et d'Orientation de Paris) and the CCIP (Chambre de Commerce et d'Industrie de Paris).

Professional lectures will be presented based on an international area for International Schools.

Visitors can also receive the official guide 'How to choose the best Master 2, MBA, MSC...' that lists all the educational options at each level.
